By signing this Commercial Terms Schedule, the Customer confirms that it agrees to the attached terms and conditions for hire and sale of goods to consumers and businesses.

*s189 of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 defines an “Individual” as (a) a partnership consisting of two or three persons not all of whom are bodies corporate; and (b) an unincorporated body of persons which does not consist entirely of bodies corporate and is not a partnership. If a Customer falls within the definition of an “Individual” and is hiring goods from [SUPPLIER NAME] the Hire Period of the Hire Goods shall be no longer than 3 months to ensure that the Hire Goods are not covered by the Consumer Credit Act 1974 and does not become a regulated consumer hire agreement under article 60N(1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001. For the avoidance of doubt, as set out in the attached terms and conditions for hire and sale of goods to consumers and businesses, the hire of goods by an Individual shall end on the earlier of a) the Hire End Date specified in the Commercial Terms Schedule above; or (ii) the last day of the 3 month period commencing on the Hire Start Date.
